

UKJS Child code of conduct

The term “children” or “child” describes ant person under the age of 18.

As a young person taking part in Judo activities as part of the United Kingdom Judo Society, we'd like you to:

The essentials

- Keep yourself safe by listening to your coach or trainer, behaving responsibly and speak out when something isn't right
- When you're with us, stay in the places where you're supposed to, don't wander off or leave without telling a member of staff
- Take care of our equipment and premises as if they were your own
- Make it to practices or sessions on time and if you're running late, let a member of staff know
- Bring the right kit to practice and wear appropriate kit for the weather
- Do not smoke or consume alcohol on our premises or during practices, competitions or when representing us

Behaviour

- Respect and celebrate difference in our club or activity and not discriminate against anyone else on the grounds of gender, race, sexual orientation or ability
- Report any incidents of bullying, including homophobia and transphobia to a member of staff, even if you're just a witness
- Treat other young people with respect and appreciate that everyone has different levels of skill and talent
- Make our club or activity a welcoming and friendly place to be
- Support and encourage your teammates. Tell them when they've done well and be there for them when they're struggling
- Respect our staff, and the staff and young players from other teams
- Be a good sport, celebrate when we win and be gracious when we lose
- Play the rules and have fun
- Follow our online safety and internet use policies
- Get involved in club or activity decisions, it's your sport too

UNITED KINGDOM JUDO SOCIETY

As a young person taking part, we understand you have the right to:

- Enjoy the time you spend with us and know that you're safe
- Be told who you can talk to if something is not right
- Be listened to
- Be respected by us and other members of the Federation
- Feel welcomed and valued and not judged based on race, gender, sexuality or ability, be encouraged to develop skills with our help
- Be looked after if there's an accident or injury and have your parents informed if needed

We expect all young people to follow the behaviours and requests set out in this code. If any young person behaves in a way which contradicts any of the points set out above, we'll address the problem straight away with parent's involvement and aim to resolve the issue.

Continued issues and repeated breaches of this code may result in us regrettably asking you to leave the activity, event permanently, for the welfare of other young people and our staff. This is something we never want to do.
